Stewards questioned riders Apprentice J Radley (EXPOSTAR), C Jordan (BEAUY'S BOY) and A Darmanin (GENUINE LADY) into an incident rounding the home turn when BEAUY'S BOY had to be checked by its rider when racing between these two runners. After taking evidence from all riders and stewards acting on their own observations and viewing the official patrol films it was established that BEAUY'S BOY who was tiring at this point and EXPOSTAR tended to lay in marginally, at the same time GENUINE LADY moved outwards to gain a clear run, because of the two shifts BEAUY'S BOY racing room was tightened. Jockey C Jordan explained that if she was travelling better, she could have held her position. Stewards could not fully contribute this incident to one rider however reminded both riders to exercise greater care when shifting ground in future.
