Stewards granted Unlikely Danger a re-weight as he had not raced for 32 days

General – Prior to the meeting stewards inquired into a complaint received from the Tasmanian Racing Integrity Commissioner. The complaint was regarding social media posts made on X (formerly Twitter) dated 24/10/2025 by licensee Kyron Ebdon, in response to posts by Susan Metcalfe. After viewing the evidence and speaking to Mr Ebdon, stewards deemed that his posts contravened GAR 165 – conduct detrimental to the interests of greyhound racing.

In assessing penalty stewards took into account Mr Ebdon's guilty plea, his good disciplinary record over a long period, and that he had deleted the posts of his own volition before the complaint was raised. While understanding that Ms Metcalfe's posts are antagonistic to greyhound participants, Mr Ebdon was advised to remain professional and not make comments online that can damage the image of greyhound racing, irrespective of their motivation. Mr Ebdon was fined the sum of $250.00
