A post-race veterinary examination of SPARE A DIME revealed the greyhound to have no abnormalities. In the opinion of Stewards, SPARE A DIME failed to pursue the lure pursuant to GAR 124 when it turned its head approaching the turn into the home straight, and at various stages during the run to the finish shifted up the track towards WHAT HAPPENED, making contact with that greyhound. As it was the greyhound's first offence under this rule, it has been stood down at Launceston only for 28 days and until the completion of a satisfactory trial.

A post-race veterinary examination of BRING IT revealed the greyhound to have no abnormalities.

A post-race veterinary examination of WHAT HAPPENED revealed the greyhound to have no abnormalities.
