Reins person C. Castles (TULLAH GIRL) questioned the process of the start in that he felt that his horse should have been leading the horses to the barrier. Stewards informed him that the outside horses lead the line to always face the barrier.

Starter Mr. Bauld was advised by Stewards that he should have had the field closer to the barriers than what had occurred in this start.

In the home straight after warm down lap MY ULTIMATE JACKO (G Rattray) fell to the track and after being attended to by the veterinary officer it was found to be deceased. In the opinion of the veterinary officer, it had suffered a heart attack. Postmortem samples were taken for analysis.

Reins person G. Rattray said the horse had travelled reasonably in the run and could offer no other explanation. Trainer Wayne Yole stated that leading into this race the Rig had worked satisfactorily and had no signs of any problems.

Leaving front straight after start GOTAHAVEAHOBIE (L. Older) hung inwards when it had MACH ANGELO (H. Van Dongen) racing to its outside and as a result CHRIS BE QUICK (B.
