A post-race veterinary examination of Grapefruit Excel revealed left hind track leg and left fore long head triceps soreness and the greyhound has been suspended from racing for 10 days. Stewards inquired into the racing manners of this greyhound approaching the home turn when it bumped with Time Will Tell on a number of occasions and appeared to turn its head outward. After considering submissions from the Trainer Mr J Brazendale and acting on their own observations it was deemed that the interference caused the greyhound to turn outward therefore no further action was taken.

She's Trouble was a late scratching at 8.17pm due to swelling to the long digital extensor tendon on the right foreleg and the greyhound has been suspended from racing for 7 days.
