General: A false start was declared at the first attempt when the 10 metre tape failed to release. At the second attempt, the 10 metre tape was hand held.

Launceston Trials – 10 July 2026

Prior to the scheduled trial, which was to be run over 2200 metres, Stewards ordered the trial be divided into two trials to allow the two years to trial separately over 1680 metres. Due to this late change, CREAMY KARALTA incorrectly carried saddlecloth number 2, when it should have carried saddlecloth number 3. PETERS THE DREAM incorrectly carried saddlecloth number 3 when it should have carried saddlecloth number 2.

SUPPLEMENTARY REPORT

Hobart Trials – 6 July 2026 – Trial 7

R. Backhouse was fined $400 under Rule 156(2)(a) for applying his whip to CHEYS ANGEL in an unapproved manner.

Launceston 21 June 2026 – Race 8

Stewards questioned R. Backhouse (VOODOO RANGER) regarding the tactics he adopted over the final 450 metres of the race, in particular his reasons for remaining in the running line prior to ASTORMZABREWEN improving to his outside. By remaining in the running line, VODOOO RANGER was held up until near the 100 metres before gaining clear running. R. Backhouse explained VODOOO RANGER is not overly strong and races best when saved for one run. He added in the race he was trailing OMYBACNKNEES JUDGE which he considered a well performed horse that would continue to take him into the race. He added if he had moved wide prior to ASTORMZABREWEN he would have been wide around the final turn, covering more ground and believes VODOOO RANGER wouldn't have run on. In considering the matter, stewards reviewed the previous races of VODOOO RANGER including its best placed performances, where the gelding raced on the marker pegs for the majority of the race or remained in the running line until the home turn. Stewards therefore accepted the explanation of R. Backhouse.
