9		12	COUNT YOUR BLESSIN	R Backhouse (C)	Inconvenienced and carried back when caught behind the tiring TASSIE DAZZLER from the 600 metres to the 500 metres.

General: Stewards conducted an inquiry into an incident occurring near the 1800-metre mark involving ARDEN SEASCAPE (D. Ford) and GOT THE GLOW (B. Miller). Evidence established that at the start, D. Ford shifted ARDEN SEASCAPE off the marker pegs to secure a trailing position behind ULTIMATE GLADIATOR in the running line. On the first turn, ARDEN SEASCAPE drifted inward slightly, causing the mare to race between positions. Concurrently, B. Miller shifted GOT THE GLOW down the track to trail SPORTZSILK, who was racing wider than a true running line position. Shortly thereafter, D. Ford corrected the positioning of ARDEN SEASCAPE. This correction resulted in GOT THE GLOW racing tight to the outside of ARDEN SEASCAPE before being checked. During this, D. Ford leaned outside the confines of his sulky toward GOT THE GLOW. In evaluating the matter, Stewards determined that ARDEN SEASCAPE's slight inward drift, combined with the forward horses racing wider than the standard running line, contributed to B. Miller attempting to occupy an unavailable position.

Accordingly, Stewards ruled that no driver had driven in a careless manner, and the circumstances were noted. In relation to D. Ford leaning outside the confines of his sulky, Stewards accepted his evidence that this action was taken solely for safety reasons, as GOT THE GLOW's sulky wheel was in close proximity to the hind legs of ARDEN SEASCAPE. However, D. Ford was advised that in similar circumstances in future, he must refrain from using his body to fend off a horse.
