

Stewards Decision

Tasracing Integrity Unit

and

Lauryn Bingley

Date of Decision	2 nd October 2026
Decision Makers	Mr. T.T. Styles
Respondent	Ms. Lauryn Bingley
Rule	AR232(b): A person must not (b) fail or refuse to comply with an order, direction or requirement of the Stewards or an official.
Plea	Guilty
Finding	Guilty
Penalty	Fine of $250
Summary of Facts	1. Ms. Bingley was at all relevant times a Tasracing Licensed Apprentice Jockey and a person bound by the Australian Rules of Racing. 2. On 24th September 2026, Tasracing Integrity Unit Stewards received a report concerning an incident that occurred at the Longford Training Centre on 22nd September 2026. 3. The report alleged that Ms. Bingley gave incorrect information to a Track Steward when asked which trainer she was riding for while using the grass track. The report stated that she attempted to make a joke by saying she was riding for Patrick Dargan. 4. On 2nd October 2026, Ms. Bingley admitted to a charge pursuant to AR232(b): A person must not (b) fail or refuse to comply with an order, direction or requirement of the Stewards or an official. 5. After considering all available evidence, Stewards found Ms. Bingley guilty of breaching AR 232(b).

6. The particulars of the charge were that, at the Longford Training Centre on 22nd September 2026, Ms. Bingley did not immediately comply with a Track Steward's request for the name of the trainer she was riding for.

7. Stewards fined Ms. Bingley $250.

Penalty Discussion

In arriving at a penalty, the Decision Makers considered all available evidence, including but not limited to:

- Ms. Bingley's guilty plea.
- The nature of the offence and the utmost importance of following the directions of Stewards and officials.
- That any penalty should be a deterrent both general and specific.

Ms. Bingley was advised of her rights to appeal the Stewards' decision.
