10		1	TOORAK LAD	11	D Pires	No report.
13		2	CHEF'S KISS	9	A Darmanin	Jumped awkwardly. Jockey A Darmanin was questioned as to why he had not ridden the filly out fully over the concluding 200m. He told the Stewards that he had been carried in by RAPIDS AHEAD when that gelding shifted inwards at the 200m and had been placed behind a wall of runners which in his opinion precluded him from improving his position. Stewards advised Jockey A Darmanin that whilst they had accepted that he had been carried in at the 200m he was not held up and had clear running. He was told that he was still obliged to ride his mount out with sufficient vigor and determination to leave no room for query. He was further advised that should he repeat a ride like this one, that stronger action would be considered against him. A post-race veterinary examination revealed no abnormalities.
