12		7	SWEET AMOUR	C Castles	Raced wide throughout. When questioned regarding the tactics adopted, C. Castles explained after the start from his wide barrier draw he allowed other horses to settle before he began to work forward three wide. He stated his intention was to find the position outside the leader, however on the first turn T. Ford on JAY MILLER improved three wide in advance of him and obtained that position. He stated he did not believe T. Ford would surrender her position therefore he remained racing three wide. He further stated he did not consider restraining to the rear as that would make it difficult to make up ground over the concluding stages.

Pla	Col	No	Horse	Driver	Incident
2		1	OUR DANCE MONKEY	G Rattray	No report.
5		2	A DRAGON FOR JOE	M Jones (C,5)	Unable to secure clear running and was not fully tested. M. Jones was questioned regarding the tactics adopted in particular over the final 250 metres of the race. M. Jones stated he was following OUR DANCE MONKEY, which he believed would race clear of the field and that would allow him to gain clear running. He stated when that did not occur, he was unable to gain clear running. He added A DRAGON FOR JOE hung in throughout and contacted marker pegs, so he did not consider moving wide on the home turn. Stewards adjourned the inquiry to consider the evidence tendered and review the previous performances of A DRAGON FOR JOE.
