GENERAL

Trainers with multiple runners in any one race advised their intended race tactics.

P. Ford, representing trainer T. Langley, contacted stewards at approximately 1:00 pm to report that the horse transport travelling to Burnie had suffered a flat tyre. Mr Ford provided regular updates to stewards regarding their expected arrival time, with the Langley runners ultimately arriving on course approximately 10 minutes later than required.

3		3	FAMILY REASONS	M Jones (C,5)	No report.
5		4	HAY MIKI	G Jones (C,5)	G. Jones was fined $50 under Rule 162(1)(j) for being out of position at the start. When questioned regarding her tactics over the final 400 metres, G. Jones explained that she secured a three-wide trail behind INTO THE HARKNESS near the 700-metres but was left racing without cover near the 550 metres. She stated because HAY MIKI was under pressure in the back straight, she elected to shift down to the marker pegs, shortly before HAY MIKI began racing roughly. G. Jones further explained that she was briefly held up behind the leading horse, SOHO TIGER LILY, until a clear run opened to that runner's inside upon entering the home straight. She added that despite driving HAY MIKI vigorously, the horse was unable to accelerate and capitalise on the opening. Stewards noted her explanation but reminded G. Jones of her obligation to drive in a manner that does not leave her tactics open to question. Specifically, in relation to moving to the marker pegs in the latter stages of a race when better alternative options are available.

4		5	MY WAY NZ	G Rattray	No report.
6		6	THEE OLD BOMB NZ	L Alcorn	Over-raced in the early and middle stages of the race.
