5		3	ARRIVAL TIME	J Duggan (C)	When questioned regarding the tactics adopted on ARRIVAL TIME, driver J. Duggan stated his instructions were to race the gelding with cover. However, soon after the start, ARRIVAL TIME began to over-race and could not be restrained. Duggan explained that while racing three-wide at the rear of the field, he decided against moving forward and around I AM CAESAR, who was racing without cover because he still intended to find cover for his horse. Approaching the 1000-metre mark, he allowed the gelding to stride forward while three wide, believing he could secure the position outside the leader. When questioned why he expected T. Rattray on COMINSKI LEIS to surrender that position, Duggan stated he believed T. Rattray would have yielded had ARRIVAL TIME reached the position early enough. Duggan added that when he increased the tempo leaving the bell, the horses to his inside also accelerated, leaving him caught three-wide until the concluding stages. Stewards noted the explanation, determining that Duggan's tactics were not unreasonable under the circumstances of the race.

General: Stewards inquired into the reason for KEAYANG FITZY breaking gait approaching the first turn. The evidence established WAVES OF CHANCE that was racing to the outside of KEAYANG FITZY began to hang in with driver M. Yole taking immediate action to direct WAVES OF CHANCE up the track. Despite his efforts, WAVES OF CHANCE continued to hang in and contacted KEAYANG FITZY causing it to break gait. Stewards were satisfied M. Yole ceased driving the horse out when it began to hang in and took immediate action to correct his racing line, therefore no action against M. Yole was considered necessary.
