7		10	HURRICANE KATUT	9	T Baker	No report.

The announcement of correct weight was delayed to allow Jockey A Darmanin the rider of 3rd placed MASTRETTA to view the film of the front straight over the concluding stages. Jockey A Darmanin lodged a protest against 2nd placed GARCON D'ESPOIR ridden by Jockey E. Byrne-Burke alleging interference near the 150m.

After viewing all available film, taking evidence from both riders and trainers Mr. Y. Nishitani (GARCON D'ESPOIR) and Ms. M. Ryan (MASTRETTA) the decision was made to uphold the protest and the placings be amended accordingly. Stewards were comfortably satisfied that when GARCON D'ESPOIR had been struck by the whip, it shifted ground outwards obliging Jockey A Darmanin to steady his mount MASTRETTA at a crucial stage and with the official margin being a short head, the stewards believed their decision the protest be upheld was justified.
