LETS GO LUCYLOU – Restrained at the start.

Stewards questioned claiming drivers Olivia Weidenbach (HES APPLES) accompanied by Senior driver Dylan Ford and Jack Watson (JACKSON NEPTUNE) accompanied by claiming driver advocate Neville Webberley into the conduct of both drivers following the running of this event. After taking extensive evidence from both drivers and comments from their advocates, and the evidence from two stewards who were positioned around the track, on the language used between these two drivers towards each other following the running of this event, issued a charge under provisions of rule 231 (2) for Misconduct.

The misconduct, being that foul language and abuse towards each other, in a loud tone was being used following the running of this event after passing the finish post and continued returning to the all-clear steward's position. Both Drivers, Olivia Weidenbach and Jack Watson pleaded guilty to the charge issued against them both. Stewards after considering their previous records under this rule and the seriousness it would have on the image of harness racing, fined the drivers a sum of $750.00 each. Stewards suspended $500.00 of this fine for a period of 24 months and assured them that it will be invoked should they breach this rule during this time in the future.
